Senator Snelson offered the following resolution:

WHEREAS, The Teacher Retirement System sends over 73,000 annuity checks to retired teachers and their beneficiaries each month; and

WHEREAS, The Teacher Retirement System submitted 73,219 annuity checks to the Austin post office on Friday, January 30, 1981, following the normal procedure used for mailing the checks each month; and

WHEREAS, the checks did not leave the Austin post office until the afternoon of Monday, February 2, 1981; and

WHEREAS, the 73,219 annuitants, through no fault of their own, did not receive their annuity check as expected on Monday, February 2, 1981; and

WHEREAS, service charges for overdrafts would have been a burden to these retired teachers living on fixed incomes; and

WHEREAS, the Texas Bankers Association and the Independent Bankers Association of Texas urged their member banks to waive any service charges which might have been incurred by these retired employees and their beneficiaries because of this delay; now, THEREFORE, BE IT

RESOLVED, That the Senate of the State of Texas thanks the member banks of the Texas Bankers Association and the member banks of the Independent Bankers Association of Texas for their cooperation in aiding the retired teachers of Texas by waiving any service charges which these retired teachers otherwise might have incurred.

The resolution was read.

WHEREAS, On September 1, 1981, William Donald Carroll, Chief of the Bureau of Vital Statistics and State Registrar, will celebrate his 50th year of service to the State of Texas, and the people of this state have been fortunate to have this talented public servant for so many years; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Carroll was born May 21, 1914, in Elizabeth, Louisiana, and his family moved in 1922 to West Texas where he attended schools in Santa Anna and in Coleman; and

WHEREAS, This fine gentleman entered The University of Texas in 1930, and one year later, on September 1, 1931, he began his career in public health as a half-time clerk in the Bureau of Vital Statistics; upon his graduation, Mr. Carroll became the Assistant State Registrar; he did graduate work at the Harvard School of Public Health in 1938; and

WHEREAS, In 1947, Mr. Carroll became Chief of the Bureau of Vital Statistics and State Registrar, and during his tenure, he saw almost 20,000,000 records of births, deaths, marriages, and divorces added to the files of the bureau; when Mr. Carroll began his work in public health in 1931, the bureau received about 20 requests each day for certified copies of birth and death records, and now the number of certified copy requests exceeds 1,500 on some days; and

WHEREAS, This outstanding man has been extremely influential in the field of public health serving as the president of the Public Health Conference on Records and Statistics of the United States from 1956 to 1958, as the president of the American Association for Vital Records and Public Health Statistics from 1966 to 1968, and as a member of the Management Committee of the Association of State and Territorial Health Officers; he has also served on many national advisory committees; and

WHEREAS, William Donald Carroll has had much to do with the development of the vital statistics system that Texas has today, and the citizens of Texas have long profited from his skill and dedication; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That the Senate of the 67th Legislature of the State of Texas pay tribute to William Donald Carroll for his 50 years of service to the state and warmly thank him for his long years of outstanding work; and, be it further

RESOLVED, That a copy of this resolution be prepared for Mr. Carroll as an expression of high regards from the Texas Senate.

BROOKS
DOGETT
